

FROM OUR PASTOR

Over the last few weeks, six of our church's children have made professions of faith in Christ and have shared a desire to be baptized, and on Sunday, September 16th, we will celebrate together as they all walk through the waters of baptism. What a wonderful day it will be! Yet, as good as that day is and will be, there will be many more good days ahead for these followers of Jesus as they begin the life-long journey of discovering how God has gifted them to serve this world and as they live into that calling. At the intersection of all these moments is a place we call church.

For years, these children have learned the stories of faith and have been loved by family and friends and have been told that they are loved by God. The places where that happened is called church. These children have been given opportunities to share who they are and who they are becoming with their peers and with the whole family of faith in worship and in study and in service and in community. The places where that happened is called church. These children were embraced as they stepped out—each one unique, each one with a different experience, each one with their own story of coming to faith. The place where that happened is called church. For the rest of their life, the places where these children will grow into mature and faithful followers of Christ who in turn raise up a new generation to faith should be called church.

Quite simply, it will be so as we continue to do the good work of being faithful followers of Christ. Let's continue to discover the ways that we can do that together!

With a grateful heart,

SPEAKER: JULIE KEGLEY SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH

What does it feel like when a church is without barriers? Julie Kegley will help us to know. Julie Kegley is Senior Staff Attorney with the Georgia Advocacy Office, the independent, federally mandated protection and advocacy system for people with disabilities in Georgia. Julie is a graduate of Auburn University and the Cumberland School of Law and was among the first deaf and hard of hearing attorneys admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States. As a mother and active member of Dunwoody Baptist Church Julie knows the beauty of being embraced by her church. She works hard to defend people with all different types of disabilities.

LUNCHEON WITH JULIE KEGLEY

Let's start a conversation! Our family members and friends help us raise awareness and sensitivity to those with special needs and disabilities. During lunch, we will talk about ways we can best support those in our church family. Julie will be available to talk more about the work of the Georgia Advocacy Office and also to dialogue about ways the church might support those with a variety of disabilities. For additional information, contact Tamara Smathers. Please call Debbye in the church office by September 26th to make a reservation for lunch and childcare.

ART GALLERY EXHIBIT

Featuring the artwork of Caroline Dempsey. Caroline's art will be displayed in the Gallery on the 3rd floor of the Education Building beginning September 23rd. We are grateful that Caroline has agreed to share her artwork with her church.

WEDDING SHOWER FOR ELLEN REAVES AND LOGAN WOOD

MUSIC MINISTRY

DOWNTOWN HYMN SING

The choirs and congregations of First Baptist, First United Methodist and St. Peter's Episcopal will combine for a hymn festival on Sunday afternoon, September 16, in the FBC sanctuary. This will be a wonderful service of singing and music with our friends from across the street and around the corner! Makes plans to be here and bring a friend or neighbor.
