FROM OUR PASTOR

The Advent Season is a time of expectation and preparation. Much like Joseph and Mary must have been preparing for their son Jesus' birth, we are also preparing for what God is birthing anew in our own lives and in our life together. Each year, we participate in those same rituals of lighting candles and waiting for the coming of the Christ-child, and every year we discover something new that God wants to do in us and through us.

This year, I am excited about our Advent theme of "Calm and Bright". This is the 200th anniversary of one of the most beloved Christmas hymns of all time-"Silent Night, Holy Night". If I am honest, the most emotional I get every year is when the candles are all lit and our voices sing that hymn together at the end of the service. It touches me every time and probably for the same reason that it touches you. We need to be reminded that God's presence in our lives through the Christ child brings peace and light into this world. At a time in our lives where we are hustling and bustling to cover all those details, singing this hymn reminds us that we don't have to have everything in hand and perfectly held together because God's presence in this world is what holds us all together.

As we reflect on the coming of Jesus to this world and the ways that this wondrous gift of God has forever changed our lives, we will also begin to anticipate what God is desiring to do in and through the life of our church as the final report of the Discovery Team comes to the church. I am praying that God will use these ideas and dreams to bring about more of God's Kingdom through our life together at FBC Rome. I hope you will join me in praying for that as well.

With hopeful expectation,

THE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

20TH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS AT FIRST BAPTIST CONCERT

The concert will be Sunday, December 2 at 4 p.m. It features the First Baptist Sanctuary Choir and Orchestra with music from the First Baptist Ringers, Youth Choir and Children's Choir. Make sure to be here and invite a friend to one of the favorite events in our church's year.

DISCIPLINES DEVOTIONAL GUIDES AVAILABLE

Each year the church provides a devotional book that can be used throughout the year. This is an investment in personal faith development that we feel is important. A daily practice of Bible reading and prayer is one that nurtures the soul and also allows us to hear God's voice anew each day. Copies of the Upper Room Disciplines will be available throughout December, either in the Church office or at the Welcome Desk near the elevator. Please contact Tamara Smathers if you need more information.

"SILENT NIGHT, HOLY NIGHT" EXHIBIT OPENS

This wonderful exhibit of woodwork by Bob Harris will open on Sunday December 2 and run through the Christmas season. Bob is known for his collection of nativity scenes, which he has been creating for many years. The blend of woods and shapes makes each figure unique. The cases containing Bob's woodwork, will be joined by other artists' depictions of the nativity of Jesus.
