

V. Shadow of Crucifixion • Mark 15:22-32

Alice Clements, reader

Hymn 192 • Were You There

Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?
Oh! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they nailed Him to the tree?

VI. Shadow of Forsakenness • Mark 15:33-36

Tamara Tillman Smathers, reader

Hymn 178 • How Deep the Father's Love For Us

Behold the Man upon a cross, my sin upon His shoulders;
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held Him there until it was accomplished.
His dying breath has brought me life; I know that it is finished.

VII. Shadow of Death • Matthew 27:50-54

Matt DuVall, reader

The Christ Candle Is Extinguished

A Time for Silent Reflection on God's Sacrifice for Us

Choral Response • I Choose Love • Mark C. Jones

Kara Truitt, soloist

In the midst of pain, I choose love.
In the midst of pain, sorrow falling down like rain,
I await the sun again, I choose love.
In the midst of war, I choose peace.
In the midst of war, hate and anger keeping score,
I will seek the good once more, I choose peace.
When my world falls down, I will rise.
When my world falls down, explanations can't be found,
I will climb to holy ground, I will rise.

*At this point some may wish to spend additional time in prayer.
When you are ready to leave, please leave in silence.*

Maundy Thursday

First Baptist Church
Rome, Georgia

April 18, 2019
7:00 p.m.

This evening our worship will be solemn. Please enter the Sanctuary in silence.

The name of this day in Holy Week comes from the Latin word “maundatum” or “commandment” as Jesus said, “I give you a new commandment; that you love one another.” This is the night Christ, taking the form of a servant, washed the disciples’ feet, instituted the Lord’s Supper and was betrayed.

This service includes the Office of Tenebrae or “Service of Shadows.” One of the most conspicuous features of the service is the gradual extinguishing of candles until only a single candle, the Christ Candle, remains. As it gets darker and darker we can reflect on the great emotional and physical pain that was very real for Jesus that evening.

PREPARATION

Prelude • Joan Hill

What Wondrous Love Is This • arr. John Carter

Call to Worship • Keith A. Reaves, leader

Our Lenten journey has brought us to this place.

To profess our faith.

To hear Jesus’ Story.

To remember His life and His death.

Called by God as sisters and brothers in Christ’s love...

we gather and worship God.

*Hymn of Adoration No. 186 • When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Meditation • Matt DuVall

COMMEMORATION OF THE LAST SUPPER

Worshippers should proceed to their right, row by row, to receive communion from the minister and deacon who are at the front of their section. Tonight, we take communion by intinction, where worshippers take a piece of bread and dip it into the cup.

All of the bread is gluten-free.

The table set before us is not the property of our church; it is the Lord's table.

We invite all who call Jesus "Lord" to join us.

TENEBRAE—A SERVICE OF SHADOWS

Anthem of Preparation • Come to the Cross • Joseph Martin

Sanctuary Choir

Come to the cross. Kneel in its shadow.

Come to the lonely place where teardrops turn to grace.
Behold the dying Lamb of God. Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy.)

Come to the cross. Rest in the promise.

Come to the shattered throne where Jesus dies alone.

Behold the wounded King of kings. Kyrie eleison.

Father forgive them.

Come to the cross. Come to the fountain.

Come to the windswept hill; the cross is waiting still.
Behold the man of Calvary. Kyrie eleison. Come to the cross.
