FROM OUR PASTOR

On Sunday, November 3rd, we will observe All Saints Day at First Baptist Church. This is a particular Sunday where we honor the memory of those saints who walked among us at First Baptist who have now joined that great cloud of witnesses in the past year since our last All Saints Day. They are still cheering us on as we continue to be faithful to God's call for us through the mission and ministry and service of First Baptist Church, and we need to remember their legacy of commitment.

We also honor their memory because many of their loved ones are still here. Their family and their friends are still feeling the pain of loss, and we need to acknowledge that their loss has left a hole in their lives and in our life together. Yet we do not grieve their loss as those who have no hope—we grieve knowing that they have received welcome into the fullness of God's loving grace that will also carry us through our own grief. So we remember, we give thanks, and we find our hope in God.

Please make an effort to not only be present with our church family on that day, but if it feels appropriate for you, to reach out to these members of our greater church family and share your memory and gratitude for their loved one. Your presence and your word of gratitude will be a balm and a gift of grace. We are indeed grateful for the legacy of those who have given shape to this wonderful church, and their memory encourages us to recommit ourselves to be a part of that faithful legacy in the years ahead.

Grace and peace,
