FROM OUR PASTOR

On the 20th of October, we will have our churchwide picnic. For supper that evening, we are asking everyone to bring a dish—enough to feed their family and maybe just a little bit more. It's called a 'potluck' supper, which is a term that most of us might know. It just means that you take your chances on what people might bring to the meal, and if you like what they brought, then you got lucky! In some ways church is like a 'potluck'. We all offer our own gifts and talents and resources to the larger community, and everyone's gifts are different. There might be five different plates of deviled eggs that are put on the table but if you taste one off of each plate, each recipe is a little different. Every teacher teaches a little differently. Everyone in the choir sings in their own voice. Everyone who serves one of our community partners serves in their own way. We need everyone's gifts offered all together to the great banquet table of the Kingdom of God in order to have a full meal!

There is a limit to this metaphor when we are talking about church though because the term 'potluck' insinuates that there might be a gift offered to the church that isn't usable or that no one wants. What often happens is that our imaginations about how different gifts might be used are the limiting factor, not how God has gifted us to serve the world in different ways. There is no 'luck' as to how God has created us to offer all of our gifts together to serve the world because God hasn't made mistakes in who we are or how we are created. If that's the case, then what the church might need is a bigger table and a willingness to try something new!

I always look forward to sharing the table with you,

CHILDREN'S CORNER

The first session of the series will present tools and resources to support your lesson preparation. Some tools will be familiar to you, while others will be new.

It's always helpful to add an extra tool or two to the tool box! Childcare is available by reservation. Please contact Debbye Akins with your childcare needs.
