Call to Worship

Keith Reaves

We gather to celebrate the birth of the one who is the Light of the world.

We are here to worship God - and his Son Jesus- born this day in Bethlehem.

The candle of hope reminds us of the promises that God would raise up a savior for His people.

Christ is our hope and our salvation. He calls us to share our hope in Him with each other.

All (Singing): O come, let us adore Him...Christ the Lord.

The candle of peace reminds us that it is only with Jesus that true peace can be found.

Christ brings the peace of God to us. He calls us to share the peace He gives with each other.

All (Singing): O come, let us adore Him...Christ the Lord.

The candle of joy reminds us that God gives joy to every heart that abides in Him.

As Mary rejoiced in the birth of Jesus - so His birth in us brings us joy. God calls us to share the joy He gives with each other.

All (Singing): O come, let us adore Him...Christ the Lord.

The candle of love reminds us that Jesus is God's gift of love to us - and that in Him, the light of love triumphs over darkness.

Love never fails - it transforms all those who give it and receive it. God calls us to share His love with each other.

All (Singing): O come, let us adore Him...Christ the Lord.

The Christ candle reminds us the Light of the world was born this day.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great Light. Those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness - on them a Light has shined. He is called Emmanuel, for in him God is with us!

Meditation Text:

The miracle of Christmas: What is it? Is it the star, the singing angels, the wondering shepherds, the lovely mother, the exotic kings? Is it the cold night, the hopes and fear? Not really. The miracle of Christmas is that God cared enough to send the very best, and that he continues to do so in the gifts now given to us in one another.

-Peter J. Gomes
