DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME ENDS
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5
Remember to set your clocks

Remember to set your clocks BACK 1 HOUR before going to bed on Saturday, November 4 or you will be an hour early for Bible Study!

Nick Georgian's Ordination will be November 12 during our Worship Service in the Sanctuary

FROM OUR PASTOR

Are you a good speller? Some of us are. Others have room to grow. One of my college roommates was very creative and excelled in graphic design. But his spelling was atroshus. (That's his spelling of atrocious, not mine!) Thankfully, he could laugh at himself and his frequent misspellings. He didn't let his spelling blunders define him.

For some, though, misspelling is no laughing matter. Recently, I read that organizers of the national spelling bee had to set up a "comfort room" where the young spelling bee participants who misspelled their words could go and cry, out of the public eye. There are couches and recliners in the comfort room. And there are punching bags in the room—there to receive the frustrations of those brilliant children who had spelled hundreds of impossible words correctly, but then misspelled one word. They failed, and their world was crushed.

Chances are, you have failed a few times in your life. More than just misspelling a word or bombing a math test, we sometimes fail terribly as friends, as parents, as spouses, as employees. Some of our failures are easy to put behind us, but others linger, and we have trouble moving on from them. In those times of failure, what do we need? A "comfort room" and a punching bag? Maybe. Correction? There's certainly a time for that, but not when we're hurting from our failure. What we need most when we mess up is what our God is willing to provide, without fail: forgiveness. Without fail, God is willing to love us in the midst of our failures. Jesus showed us this forgiving side of God time and again as he forgave the many failures of his disciples and the sinful people of his day. And the offer of his loving forgiveness still stands today.

When we fail, we need a forgiving friend, like the friend we have in Jesus. And when others fail us, I wonder if we can be that forgiving friend to them?

Your pastor and friend,

CHILDREN'S CORNER
